Bradford Central PRU Accessibility Plan, May 2014

Introduction

The Sen and Disability Act 2001 extended the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 (DDA) to cover education. Since September 2002, the Management Committee has had three key duties towards disabled pupils, under Part 4 of the DDA:

- Not to treat disabled pupils less favourably for a reason related to their disability;
- To make reasonable adjustments for disabled pupils, so that they are not at a substantial disadvantage;
- To plan to increase access to education for disabled pupils.

This plan sets out the proposals of the Management Committee of the PRU to increase access to education for disabled pupils in the three areas required by the planning duties in the DDA:

- Increasing the extent to which disabled pupils can participate in the PRU curriculum;
- Improving the environment of the PRU to increase the extent to which disabled pupils can take advantage of education and associated services;
- Improving the delivery to disabled pupils of information which is provided in writing for pupils who are not disabled.

It is a requirement that the PRU's accessibility plan is resourced, implemented, reviewed and revised as necessary.

Definition of Disability

The Disability Discrimination Act 1995 defines a disabled person as a person with 'a physical or mental impairment which has substantial and long-term adverse effect on his (or her) ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities'.

The Act defines 'substantial' as 'more than minor or trivial' and 'long term' as 'has lasted or is likely to last more than 12 months'.

The Act states that impairment is to be taken to affect the ability of a person to carry out normal day-to-day activities only if it affects that person in respect of one or more of the following:

- Mobility
- Manual dexterity
- Physical co-ordination
- Continence
- Ability to lift, carry or otherwise move everyday objects
- Speech, hearing or eyesight

- Memory or ability to concentrate, learn or understand
- Perception of the risk of physical danger

Starting Points

Bradford Central PRU believes that all pupils have the right to be included in the life of the pupil referral unit. The staff is committed to the inclusion of all pupils. We therefore:

- Value every individual and celebrate their achievements
- Identify and respond to individual needs
- Identify and overcome potential barriers to learning
- Set multiple learning challenges for every pupil.

On 1st October 2010, the Equality Act 2010 replaced all of the existing equality legislation, such as the Disability Discrimination Act 1995 (DDA) and the Special Education Needs and Disability Act 2001 (SENDA). The Equality Act 2010 places a legal obligation on all PRUs, making it unlawful to discriminate against pupils, staff, governors, parents or visitors with a disability.

Under the Equality Act 2010 we welcome our general duty to eliminate discrimination, to advance equality of opportunity and to foster good relations. In addition we also welcome our specific duties to publish information every year about our PRU population, to explain how we have due regard for equality and to publish equality objectives which show how we plan to tackle particular inequalities, and reduce or remove them.

The Main Priorities in the PRU's Plan

Increasing the extent to which disabled pupils can participate in the PRU curriculum.

The current position:

- All pupil needs, including SEN, are identified to staff at the start of their placement.
- The Context Sheet for each class is kept up-to-date and is accessible to all staff. This allows for instant access to pupil profiles of need and ability.
- Each pupils needs are shared and planned for by all staff through regular contact.
- The curriculum is fully inclusive.
- Underachievement of pupils, including those with SEN pupils is systematically tracked.
- Access to additional services and outside agencies is sought to support improved outcomes for pupils, including those with SEN.
