Written statement by the Management Committee of general principles to guide the Headteacher in determining measures to promote good behaviour

The Education and Inspections Act 2006 requires Governors to make, and from time to time review, a written statement of general principles to guide the Headteacher in determining measures to promote good behaviour. Practical applications of these principles are the responsibility of the Headteacher. This statement has been adopted by the Management Committee as a whole, following consultation with the Headteacher, parents, students and staff.

At BCPRU, we value everyone as an individual, capable of growth, change and development. Our relationships are underpinned by the principles of justice, equality, mutual respect, fairness and consistency, and by our mission statement. We have high expectations that support the development of young people as effective and responsible citizens.

The purpose of this statement is to give guidance to the Headteacher in drawing up the Positive Behaviour Policy by stating the principles that the Management Committee expect to be followed. The purpose of the Positive Behaviour Policy is:

- To fulfil the Management Committees duty of care to pupils and employees;
- To promote high standards of teaching and learning and high standards of attainment;
- To preserve the reputation of the PRU.

This statement also supports the PRU in its vision which is set out in the Mission Statement. The Management Committee expect any policy or actions to be in accordance with their responsibilities under equality legislation.

The purpose of sanctions is:

- To promote positive behaviour that enables all pupils to learn and make progress;
- To demonstrate that misbehaviour is not acceptable;
- To express the disapproval of the PRU community;
- To deter other pupils from similar behaviour.

It is recognised that the application of rewards and sanctions must have regard to the individual situation and the individual pupil, and the Headteacher is expected to use his/her discretion in their use. Rewards and sanctions should, however, be applied fairly, consistently, proportionately and reasonably, taking into account special educational needs, disability and the needs of vulnerable children, and offering support as necessary.

The Management Committee expect pupils and parents to co-operate to maintain an orderly climate for learning.

The Management Committee wish to emphasise that violence, threatening behaviour or abuse by pupils or parents towards the PRUs staff will not be tolerated. If a parent does not conduct himself/herself properly, the PRU may ban them from the PRUs premises and, if the parent continues to cause nuisance or disturbance, he or she may be liable to prosecution.

The effectiveness of this statement in guiding the Headteacher is kept under review by the Management Committee, with a formal review and re-adoption every three years. Any substantial changes to the principles will be consulted upon, as described above.
